Judge Leslie Grant Orders Clerk Mitchell To Open Ballot Boxes

Circuit Judge Leslie Grant ordered Clerk of Courts A. C. Mitchell to open the ballot boxes for defeated sheriff candidate George V. Price, Sr.

Price filed a petition for mandamus that he be allowed the contest of the boxes after the Clerk had ruled that he did not have the authority to open the boxes because Price had failed to give Sylvan J. Ladner, Jr., the successful candidate a three day notice.

Judge Grant accepted the mandamus and issued an order to Mitchell to open the boxes Monday.

The mandamus was not contested by Sheriff-elect Ladner, who was not present during the hearing.

The mandamus was not against Ladner, but it only involved the custodian of the boxes.

Earlier Price had filed a petition with the Hancock County Democratic Executive Committee, stating that he believed that there was fraud and irregularities in the ballot boxes.

MAYOR ISSUES WARNING TO PINBALL MACHINE OPERATORS

Chief of Police A. E. Sauter last Monday reported to Mayor Scaife, that he had received complaints from several parents that their children were being permitted to play pinball machines, where pay offs are involved.

Mayor Scaife has issued instructions to the Police Department to investigate these complaints and to keep a close surveillance on all the business places involved and to arrest any operator who uses a pinball machine as a gambling device.

The Mayor in a statement to the press declared that anyone arrested and brought before his court for such a violation will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law.

The boxes in three of the county's five beats have already been checked by candidates in various beat races.

Price was defeated by 221 votes in the second primary held on August 23.

Last week he filed a petition with Mitchell asking that he be allowed to examine the ballot boxes. The law states that the opposing candidate has to be given a three day notice before the ballot boxes can be examined.

But Ladner was not given the prescribed three day notice and therefore the only way the boxes could have been opened was to have Ladner waive the three day service.

He refused to do this therefore Clerk Mitchell ruled that he did not have the authority to open the boxes.

His decision was upheld by the Attorney General's office in Jackson.

Price and his attorneys from Gulfport will begin the examination of the boxes Monday.

20-Year-Old Youth Killed Near Picayune

W. T. Stockstill, a 20-year-old youth of Picayune, Mississippi, was killed Saturday night, when an automobile in which he was a passenger over turned on the sharp curve one mile outside of Kiln on the old Picayune highway.

The driver of the car, Charles Farrell, 25, also of Picayune, was seriously injured and is now confined to the Veterans Hospital in New Orleans with a skull fracture, compound fractures of the leg and other injuries.

J. W. Olsen of Kiln was the first person to reach the accident. When he arrived he found Farrell trapped in the car. He worked him free and contacted help. Farrell was immediately taken to the Veterans' Hospital.

Stockstill was found by State Highway Patrolman L. C. Newell and Chief of the Picayune Police Moody, several minutes later.

He had been thrown from the car into the creek and was located in four feet of water.

It was not decided whether the car was pushed down the creek by waves or whether it rolled over. The car was found in the creek with the engine running. Those who were in the car at the time of the accident were Charles Farrell, 25, also of Picayune, who was seriously injured and is now confined to the Veterans Hospital in New Orleans with a skull fracture, compound fractures of the leg and other injuries.

Court of Awards To Be Held Oct. 17

A campaign for funds in November and the Court of Awards in October were among important topics discussed at the monthly meeting of the Bay-Pass District of the Boy Scouts held September 19 at the R. E. A. Building.

Funds collected during the November drive are needed to meet expenses of the current year, which ends in February 1956.

"Many people are already aware of the good work being done in this district in scouting. Those of us who work with the boys need the cooperation of the public for the success of our program, and we hope the people of the Bay-Pass area will be generous in giving us the necessary financial help to carry on," a spokesman for the group pointed out.

Dr. R. S. Stewart, district chairman, presided at Monday's meeting. Teddy Stechmann, district commissioner, gave the commissioner's report. Other reports of operation by the following:

M. L. Hill, Advancement; L. S. Pahlman, Camping and Activities; H. Lettisser, Finance; Health and Safety; Jack Lang, Leadership and Training; Dec. Elliott and Organization and Extension, Carl Arnold.

Wreck Occurs On Highway 90; No Occupants Injured

A wreck occurred on Highway 90 Monday afternoon between a paperwood truck and a 1952 automobile.

The driver of the truck, Alfred Adolph of Esterbrook Street was making a left turn off the highway when Mrs. Alma Rose driving the other vehicle crashed into the rear of the truck.

No one was injured, but the damage to the car was estimated at $500. The truck was just slightly damaged.

J. D. Horlock, Raymond Kidd and Robert Moran, three of the men arrested in the recent Hancock County raids conducted by the National Guard, were fined $100 on each count that they were charged with in County Justice of Peace's court.

M. G. Seuzeneau, who was arrested along with Kidd and Horlock, at Ray's Drive in located on Highway 90, asked for a trial. He was granted a continuance and will go to court on Wednesday, October 12.

Lucien Gex, attorney for Horlock, Kidd and Seuzeneau pleaded not guilty for all three of his clients, but told the Judge that Horlock and Kidd would have no objections if he found them guilty. He then asked for a trial for Seuzeneau.

Judge Nellius Rhodes, who tried these cases, found Kidd and Horlock guilty on both counts of possessing gambling equipment and whiskey, and fined them $100 on each count and the cost of court.

In Pearl River it was a little different.

Walter Gex, defending Moran and Harold Zimmermann of the Pines first asked that the case against Zimmermann be dismissed because he was only a night watchman at the establishment.

His request was granted by District Attorney Boyce Holleman after Holleman had conferred with National Guard officials.

Then Gex asked for an immediate trial by jury for Moran.

Ten men to serve on the jury were present.

After the six man jury was impaneled two of the men were dismissed by the District Attorney and two more were selected in their places.

The State presented as evidence, covers that had been taken off of the dice tables and the roulette wheels in the Pines by members of the National Guard.

Two National Guardsmen who were part of the group who raided the Pines identified this matter.

Also three fifths of liquor were introduced as evidence. This was also alleged to have been taken from the Pines.

National Guardsmen stated to the Court that Moran had identified himself as the manager of the plush casino located several hundred yards from the Louisiana State line.

The main point in Gex's defense of Moran was the fact that the dice tables, roulette wheels which were confiscated from the Pines, could have been used for many other things other than gambling.

Gex stated, as far as the National Guard knew these tables could have been used to serve hot dogs, or to serve children their meals or even to use for pleasure only.

The Bay St. Louis Attorney asked both National Guard witnesses if they knew it was used for gambling and if they had ever seen dice tables before.

They both said they had seen dice tables on a number of occasions and at times had even lost money on them.

Gex asked a Corporal from Hattiesburg if he knew what a dice table looked like.

The tall red headed boy said, "Yes." Gex asked "how do you know?"

The Corporal said, "I have lost money on them, before."

Gex asked him if he had ever been in a place like the Pines before. The National Guardsman answered, "No I have never seen a place as nice as that one before."

Then Gex asked how many gambling places he had ever been in.

He answered "About 100."

Gex questioned this answer. Then the boy said, "Yes mister I have been in that many before." I served three years in the United States Marine Corps."

District Attorney Holleman waive his opening argument to the jury and Gex presented his, which was short and in which he just presented facts that he had brought before the court in cross examination. That these tables could have been used for many other than gambling and that the whiskey had never been tested to see if it was over the alcoholic limit allowed in Mississippi.

In his final argument Holleman told the jury that he believed that this was the way these type of cases should be handled. That is in Justice of Peace courts. But he said, "if you leave this room this afternoon with all the evidence which had been presented to you and find this man not guilty, then that is the time when the State will want to take other means of handling these cases."

Gex jumped from his chair and stated that he objected to Holleman threatening the jury. A hot argument followed between the two men and Holleman told Gex "If you don't want to listen to me, then you can leave the court room."

Judge C. E. Martin over ruled Gex's objection.

The Jury deliberated almost a half hour before it returned verdict of guilty on both counts. Gex told the court that they may appeal the verdict in the case to a higher court.

Martin fined Moran the minimum fine of $100 and cost on each charge.

Supervisors Urged To Support Municipal Ass'n.

Members of County Board of Supervisors throughout the state are being urged by Summer B. Glasco, President of the Mississippi Municipal Association, to get behind the movement of the Mississippi Municipal Association to obtain a larger share of state-collected tax revenues for financially distressed towns and cities. Mr. Glasco said county officials are generally agreed that municipalities must have more state aid but of course favor some form of help that will not take money from the counties.

Members of the Mississippi Municipal Association will ask the 1956 Legislature to return to the state's 285 towns and cities a total of $3,000,000 now collected by the state in taxes on insurance premiums. The sum is now paid into the general fund of the state treasury except for $250,000 which goes to municipalities maintaining qualified fire departments.

Under the leadership of Mayor W. J. Caraway, of Leland, President of the Municipal Association organized in 20 districts to publicize the financial needs of incorporated communities which are experiencing phenomenal growth.

Mayor John Scafile Named To All-Time Tulane Greats Squad

Mayor John Scafile, formally known to the world as "Baby Grand", was named to the All-Time Tulane Greats by Zipp Newman, sports editor of a Birmingham Alabama daily.

Newman went as far as to say that Mayor Baby Grand Scafile was the greatest to ever wear the Tulane Greens.

Under his selection of Mayor Scafile, Newman said "John Scafile, the stationary guard, was probably the best guard Tulane ever had. He was immovable—no moving the rugged block of granite."

The Mayor received his unusual nick name because of many said he was built like a Baby Grand piano when he displayed his outstanding talents on the gridiron.

His legs, as they are today, looked like oak tree stumps and they held up his body, which resembled that of heavyweight wrestling champ Lou Thesz.

He was selected on the All-American team as well as the All-Southern Teams.

One year he was selected as an All-Southern guard along with the famous Herman Hickman of Tennessee.

An article clipped from one of the big Southern dailies, was piled high with praise for these two giants of the football field.

The article read "There are a number of guards who in other years would have merited All-Southern decoration. They happened to be unfortunate enough to appear at a time when Herman Hickman, the Little Giant of Tennessee and John Scafile, the Enormous E-tallan from Tulane held forth."

The article first went on to give the expert's opinion of Hickman, then it presented an opinion of Baby Grand Scafile. The writer said, "Baby Grand Scafile's displacement exceeded 220. He was an immovable body. Neither tackles or ends are needed to flank him, for there is no device known to scientists or politicians to circumvent them, undermine them or move across them."

"Scafile was a rampart against which all attacks shattered themselves. Scafile mani-festes the strongest credited to Tarzan of the Apes in handling opposing forwards. He was stalwart opening holes. He was invulnerable on defense. He was a guard without a flaw."

"Scafile was not speedy, but he was far from being awkward for a player of such unusual physical construction. Low of the width of the field, and no stature, he spread out half the width of the field, and no manner of defense used against him was ever found to be effective."

This was Mayor John Scafile as a football player.

A standout in every phase of the game. An All-American. A truly great performer.

COMPLETE PLANT REMODELING

Engineering at the Mobile plant is being done by the Stearns-Roger Manufacturing Company. There will be a new office building, new chemical and physical laboratories, and new wash and change facilities for all employees. These are being designed by Mobile architect Harry Inge Johnstone. A complete and thoroughly modern dust collection system is being designed which will make the plant practically dust-free in its operation. In addition, there will be many other refinements to the present plant which will increase its efficiency and production capacity.

Additional Storage and Shipping Facilities

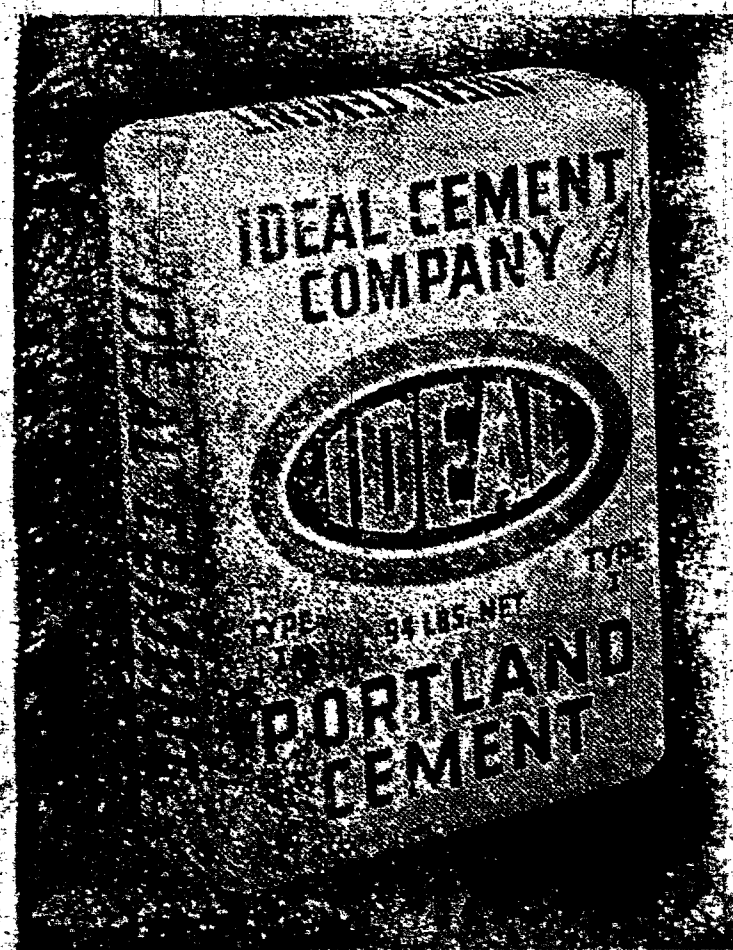

New storage and shipping facilities are being designed which will help to increase the effective production capacity of the plant.

An Investment of Over $6,000,000

The Mobile plant remodeling program will require over $6,000,000 in addition to the present plant investment.

More Production Capacity

Engineering on the plant remodeling is proceeding at a satisfactory rate. Some work will be done on the plant just as soon as engineering can be completed, and the principal program will start after the completion of the new office building. Refinements to the present plant will increase production substantially, and new storage and shipping facilities will further increase effective production capacity. Because of the great interest shown, we feel that you will be pleased to learn of the progress that is being made at Ideal's Mobile plant.

Stanislaus Drops Decision To Play Bay High Meets Leaksville Friday

Rhodes Scores Both Touchdowns For Rockachaws; Meet Vigor Tomorrow

The St. Stanislaus Rockachaws displayed great courage and durability in their encounter against the Gulfport Commodores, but they just didn't have enough capable men to give their regulars a rest and therefore were defeated 22-13 by the Big Eight squad.

Stanislaus played an inspired ball club with the first string boys playing under a handicap with three regulars sidelined with injuries, keeping in the game on instinct and hustle alone.

Billy Rhodes, the sophomore from the third ward, definitely won the admiration of all the viewers in the stands. This youngster suffering from fatigue in stages of the game, scored both of the Rockachaw scores.

The first was a 20-yard run and the second touchdown was scored on one of the most magnificent and brilliant runs that has been witnessed on a Gulf Coast gridiron in a number of years.

The run was good for an official 85 yards but if you add up the yards he ran crossing the field and dodging back and forth to avoid tacklers, then it would total close to 150 yards.

When Rhodes, who has been the sparkplug of the Rockachaw offense in the first two games of the season, crossed the goal he collapsed.

The boy was worn out. All night long he had to carry the Rocks running attack and the game pace was swift, in fact the referees said it was "one of the fastest they had ever seen."

Kenny Artigues, who directed the team in capable fashion from the quarterback slot, helped Rhodes at times by running the Split T Optional play. But other than that, Rhodes had to carry the load.

Mitchell De Cuir, the T-tan, who was counted on to run from the fullback spot, saw on the sidelines watching the game. His leg was badly burned in the Biloxi game by raw line. This was also the fate of Jerry Le Blanc another first stringer, who was missed greatly in the line.

Jimmy Garce, a backfield letterman, is also missing to the team. He will be out for the season. J. E. Loiacano another boy, who could have helped in the backfield was also out with injuries. He should be ready for Friday night but whether or not De Cuir and Le Blanc will be ready is the big question at this time.

The most remarkable happening in the Gulfport game was the fact that three touchdowns were scored in the last 42 seconds.

Gulfport scored then kicked off to Stanislaus. That is when Rhodes made his spectacular run.

The Rocks then kicked off to Gulfport who returned the ball to mid-field, and with one play remaining in the ball game the Commodores broke through the Rocks' defense to go all the way.

With only five minutes left in the game the score was 13-6 in favor of Gulfport.

This week Stanislaus meets Vigor, a big prep school from Mobile and pre-season favorites to capture the prep league in that city.

In its first two games of the year, Vigor is unbeaten and scored on. They defeated Semms High 27-0 and Foley 20-0.

Because of this record and because of the size of the Vigor boys Coach Farley Day is looking forward to a rough game.

Coach Day said, "If De Cuir and Le Blanc come around and are ready for Friday night, we will field the strongest team that we have fielded this year."

Against Gulfport the boys played harder than they did in the Biloxi game. They really hustled and put out in every play. Not having substitutes was our greatest problem in that game. We could not give any of our first string boys a break."

Coach Herb Adams had only this to say about the Gulfport game. "The boys played their hearts out. They were playing on guts alone at times."

Leon Fazio and Gene Hargrove were the big defensive boys in the Gulfport game and are being counted on heavily for the Vigor game.

Alfonso Vasquez, who played last year, will be ready to help in the halfback slot Friday night. He is a late comer and has been rounding into pretty fair shape.

Stanislaus will play its first home game tomorrow night.

Even speckle trout are being caught up Pearl River as far as Logtown. Live bait has been available at Givens Fishing Camp at the Pearl River bridge as well as boats. Better give it a try.

Haven't had any reports from dove hunters since the split season opened on Sept. 12. The season will run from Sept. 12 to Oct. 3, and Dec. 19 thru Jan. 10, 1956. Shooting hours are from 12 o'clock noon until sunset each day of the open season.

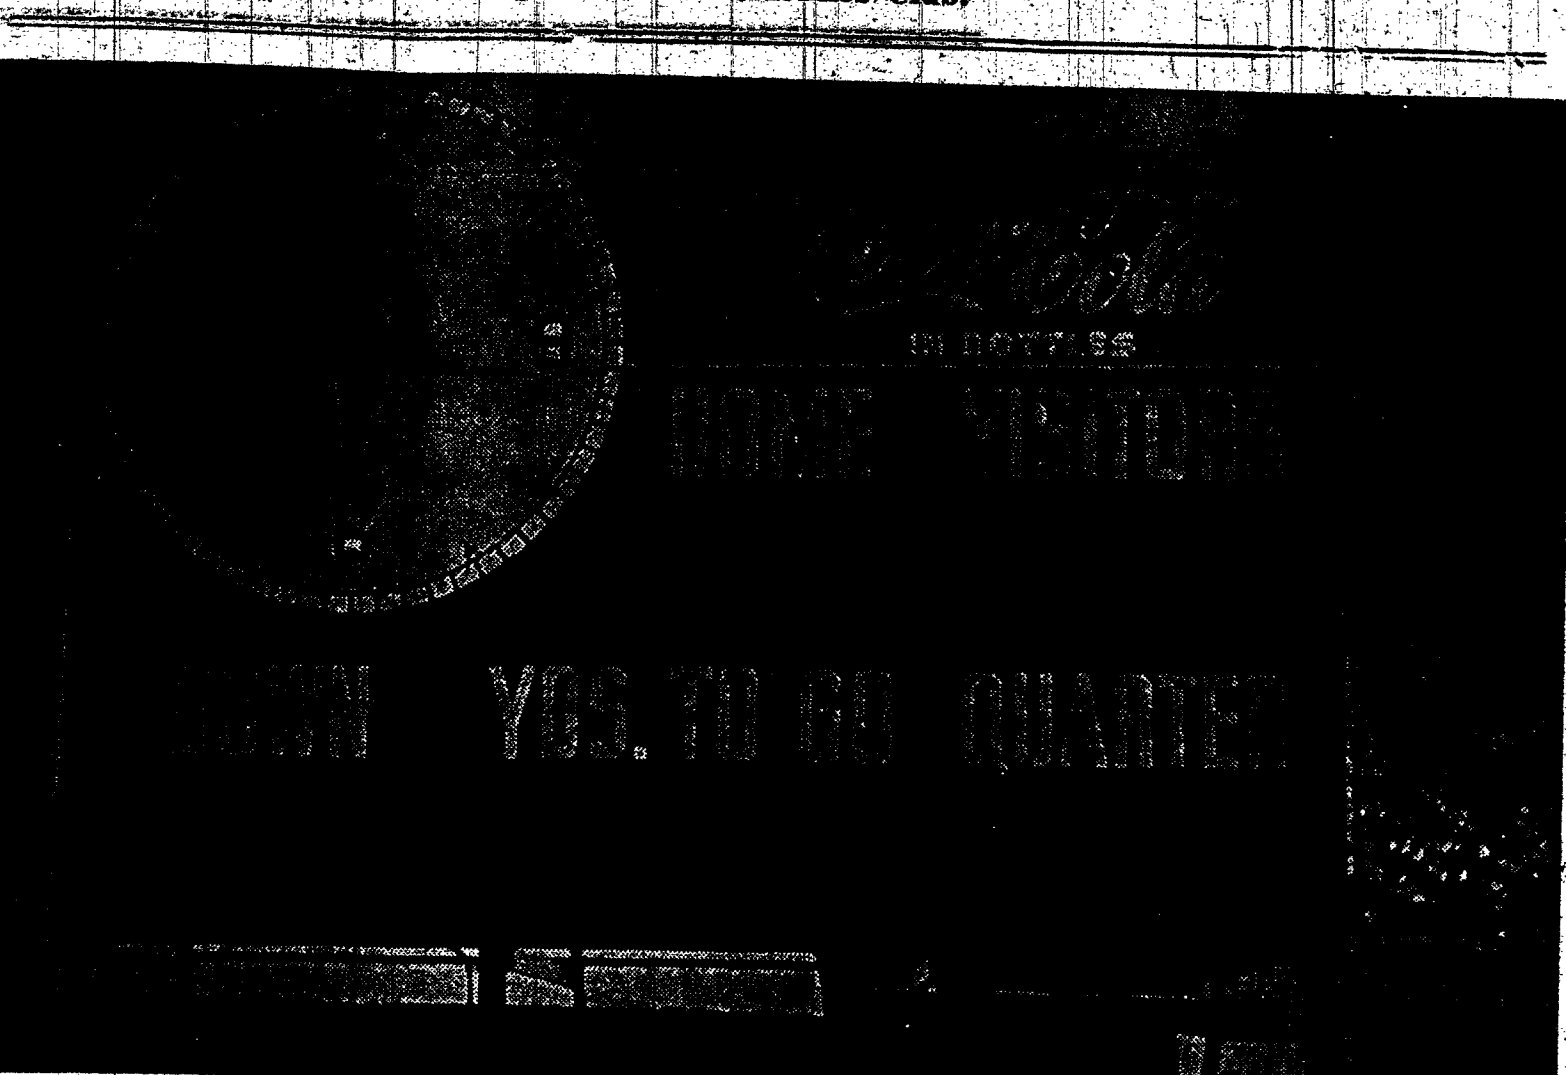

Shrimp are running larger this year than ever. Most fishing camps have had plenty of live bait, but 1 shrimp makes two of three baits—they run from 4 to 5 inches in length—don't think it makes much difference to the fish, however.

According to the Fish and Wild Life Service for 1955-56 there should be a good fall flight of ducks and geese this year. The time of the open season will be from Nov. 7, 1955 and January 15, 1956.

There have been some mighty good bargains on fishing and hunting articles listed in the Classified columns of the Echo. Better watch them for guns, fishing tackle, boats and motors.

Tigers Seek Second Victory of Season At Full Strength Just Now

The Bay High Tigers, following a week of rest, will meet one of the strongest teams on its schedule, tomorrow night when it travels to Leaksville to play the High School there.

The Tigers have been prepping all week for this game and have been concentrating mostly on defensive work.

Their main objective in this game is to stop Leaksville's big fullback, who has left a path of destruction in the three games his team has won this season.

At this point they are unscored on, all as unbeaten. Lancel Lumpkin is looking forward to a rough night.

He said, "Leaksville has a good team and a good heavy line. But their main threat is their big fullback. He weighs 210 pounds and stands 6 feet, 4 inches."

"We have been setting up defenses in order to stop him. We will definitely have a rough game. We have our work cut out for us."

Lumpkin continued, "we feel like Leaksville and Poplarville will be the roughest games on our schedule. The main thing that will hurt us in that severe-al of the boys in our first are inexperienced.

"But we believe that if we can stop the big boy in Leaksville backfield and our offense clicks we have a possible chance, but that chance is slim."

are outweighed almost pounds to the man in the line. Leaksville has been second to Poplarville in the De Soto Conference.

In their first game of season the Tigers were victorious against the Pass Christian Pirates.

Tommy Holden and Harry Landrum, an All Star guard from last year's team will be back in action tomorrow night. He has been out with a leg injury.

Coach Lumpkin plans to use him on defense only. The Tigers will enter this game as underdogs and if they do win it will be a terrific upset in the De Soto Conference and will mean a lot in the standings in this conference.

Star Of The Week

Determination, courage, humility, and a few of the virtues which are part of the makeup of Billy Rhodes, the junior halfback of the St. Stanislaus Rockachaws, who has been selected as the second Sea Coast Echo star of the week, for his brilliant play in the Gulfport game.

Though the Rocks lost, this small but effective halfback along with several other team mates won the admiration of the entire attendance at the game.

Rhodes played with his heart and with guts. He gave it everything he had at all times, even though in the latter part of the game he could hardly walk.

for Stanislaus and scored both of its touchdowns.

One of these was scored on an 80 yard runback of a kick off. This run had everyone in the stands, standing up cheering the courageous youngster.

After he crossed the goal line he collapsed from fatigue and it took several minutes before he could be revived.

If Stanislaus had a couple of more boys of Rhodes' caliber they would be hard for any high school team to handle. For he is a threat to the opposition whenever he gets his hands on the ball.

This is his third year of varsity ball and he is only a junior.

If he continues to progress then he should have waiting time of college scouts when he gets his diploma in 1957.

The runnerup for Star of the Week honors was the other half of the Gold Dust Twins, Kenny Artigues. He guided Stanislaus from the quarterback slot.

Easing Fear Called Vital Factor In Aiding Recovery From Polio

Minneapolis, Minn. — When polio strikes, not only the disease, but the accompanying fear and anxiety as well, must be treated.

A vital factor in speeding recovery of polio patients is the alleviating of fear and readjustment of the patient by the psychiatric staff.

Other department personnel, including social service specialists, assist to calm terror-stricken relatives. There is an enormous fear of the disease in the minds of nearly everyone. Fear and anxiety, which inevitably come to patients and their families when diagnosis of polio is made, may actually interfere with the treatment and recovery in the acute stages of illness as well as in later stages of convalescence.

Fear and anxiety, however, can be treated. Sometimes this treatment is relatively simple. At other times, the problem is more complicated and longer periods of counseling are needed. At Kenny Foundation treatment facilities, expert management of emotional problems is under the direction of the psychiatric staff.

Regardless of the length of time involved, the goal is the same—to help the patient understand his own feelings about his illness and to utilize every resource to assist in his recovery.

(Released by the Kenny Foundation's Medical Staff)

NEW ROLE FOR CLOWN: Emmett Kelly is recognized the world over as the "sad-faced" clown. However, he wanted it known that he wasn't clowning when he joined a star-studded field of radio, TV, stage and screen personalities in backing the public appeal of the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation so that the organization may continue to provide treatment and rehabilitation for polio victims.

Primary objectives of the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation include administering the full Kenny treatment to polio patients; training registered nurses and physical therapists to become Kenny Therapists; research, and medical education.

The famed Kenny treatment for polio is made available at hospitals across the country operated and maintained by the organization which bears her name—the Sister Elizabeth Kenny Foundation. Procedures for admission to Kenny treatment centers is available through a list of hospitals.

Kenny Therapists are registered nurses or physical therapists who have completed the full course of training in the Kenny concept and treatment of polio. This post-graduate training is provided by the Sister Kenny Foundation.

September 20 marks the seventh anniversary of the birth of the late Sister Elizabeth Kenny who devoted her life to fighting polio and its crippling after-effects. Miss Kenny, born at Warfield, New South Wales, Australia, died November 30, 1952. Her work has been carried on through the Sister Kenny Foundation.

Revolving Fund of American Cancer Society Lends To Patients

The revolving fund of the American Cancer Society, Mississippi Division, now has over $6,000 which is being used to help pay medical and hospital expenses of cancer patients in Mississippi.

The revolving fund, started in 1946, is used to help those who, although not medically indigent, cannot bear the total expense of cancer treatment.

Any amount of money up to $400 can be loaned to a cancer patient upon his doctor's recommendation. The money is paid back at the patient's convenience, in installments as low as $5 per month, without interest. When the money has been returned to the American Cancer Society, Mississippi Division, it is then loaned to someone else in need thus the name "revolving fund."

A typical letter this week received by the Mississippi Division reads:

"Enclosed you will find final payment to the revolving fund. Thank you for all the courtesies and considerations shown to me and my family. I assure you that this loan has helped us considerably. Yours is a truly great work and I pray God success for yours and the society's contribution to humanity. I sincerely trust that in the near future cancer will be conquered. Again may I humbly say thank you."

The realization of the need for a loan program arose in 1946, just one year after the American Cancer Society, Mississippi Division, had been formed.

On the Gulf Coast a young woman was dying of cancer of the breast. A nursing mother, she had a newborn baby and several small children.

Like many veterans, her husband had returned home to buy a house and car on time payments. Although the man had a good job, the family's income was spent each month. When the wife developed cancer, operations and hospital expenses followed. The home and car were mortgaged. Someone was needed to care for the children. That someone must be paid.

The man borrowed as much money as he could. Everything of possible value was sold. Still more money was needed for his wife's treatment. Finally in desperation he appealed to the American Cancer Society, Mississippi Division.

Such a request for a loan was then unheard of in the new, struggling young office. However, the Mississippi Division scraped together the available funds and loaned them to him to be paid back at his convenience.

A prominent Gulf Coast businessman, hearing of the loan, sent stocks and bonds to the Society. The money from the investments was used to pay off the man's loan and to start the revolving fund.

The Society, through the loan program, has helped teachers, farmers, a restaurant owner, office workers, a technician, a clerk, and many other "white collar" workers.

The $6,000 now in the revolving fund has come through small donations by individuals and by clubs. Any group interested in donating to the American Cancer Society, Mississippi Division's loan program must earmark the money "revolving fund."

All contributions should be sent payable to "The American Cancer Society, Mississippi Division, care of Mrs. Elizabeth M. Waters, First Federal Savings and Loan Building, Jackson, Mississippi."

'56 Fisher Body Contest To Give $90,000 In Prizes

Eight university scholarships worth $20,000 and another $70,000 in cash and U. S. Savings Bonds are the stakes in the 1956 Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild model car competition, it was announced today by James P. Wines, secretary of the Guild.

In addition to individual awards to successful young model car builders, the Guild awards permanent trophies to the schools attended by first, second, regional and national winners.

Since 1930, the Fisher Body competition has awarded 140 university scholarships valued at $41,500 to national winners. More than $700,000 in cash and other awards have been made to thousands of boys winning state and regional honors.

The 1956 competition offers the young car designers the opportunity to build sports cars, hardtops, convertibles or station wagons as well as two- or four-door sedans.

The Fisher Body model car competition has become nationally famous as one of industry's most successful talent sources. A survey of former winners revealed that the same dreams that help a boy design and build an award-winning model car helped most of them to become prize-winning adults, too.

In addition to the many who become industrial and automotive designers, the survey found doctors, lawyers, bankers, architects, publishers, engineers and manufacturers.

Enrollments are being taken now for the competition by Guild field representatives who are visiting thousands of public and parochial schools throughout the country.

Any boy in the United States between the ages of 12 through 19 is eligible to enter the competition and may obtain an enrollment card by writing to the Fisher Body Craftsman's Guild, General Motors Corporation, Detroit 2, Michigan.

A booklet on model car design and construction, the only textbook of its kind for youths wishing to learn about automobile design, is given to each boy enrolling in the Guild. It was prepared by professional designers from the General Motors Styling Section, Fisher Body Division engineers and the Technical Staff of the Craftsman's Guild. The awards for the best models entered in the Guild Competition include eight university scholarships for the national winners of the Junior (12 through 15 years old) and Senior (16 through 19) divisions of the competition. In each group the awards will be: 1st—$4,000 scholarship; 2nd—$3,000; 3rd—$2,000; 4th—$1,000.

There will be 14 awards in each state and the District of Columbia, seven in each age group as follows: 1st—$150 cash; 2nd—$100; 3rd—$50; and four honorable mention awards of $25 U. S. Savings Bonds. For judging purposes, the 48 states and District of Columbia are grouped into 20 regions, each of which will send a junior and senior Division winner expense free to the national Guild convention next July.

Sons of General Motors employees (including dealers and their employees) are eligible to enter the competition. Duplicate awards are made if the son of a GM employee wins.

Blood Bank

B-Day is just a little more than a month away. This is the day when you and your neighbors will donate one pint of BLOOD to save a life.

Last Thursday, a meeting was held concerning the Blood Bank. The drawing will be held Wednesday, October 18th at the Bay St. Louis Youth Center from 3:00 p. m. until 9:00 p. m.

Within the past 3 weeks, 300 pints of blood were called for from the bank. This great demand leaves only 33 pints in reserve.

There is only one means of replacement, that is "by YOU, the people of Hancock County."

The giving of a pint of blood is not only a donation to your neighbors, but an investment. For the life you save may be your own!

Six Clermont Children Donate To Red Cross

Six children of Clermont Harbor opened up their hearts last week in an effort to help the disaster stricken people of the flood areas in the United States.

These children, four of whom are New Orleans residents during week and who spend their weekends in Clermont Harbor, staged a production in their front yard and charged admission of all the kids who wished to view their talents.

The proceeds, which totalled $5.02 was given in its entirety to the Emergency Red Cross Drive in Hancock County.

The children who participated in this benevolent act were Cyril Ann and Buzzy Heroman, Will and Helanie Finnir and Kathleen and Donald O'Neill.

Their parents stated that the idea was their original creation and that they did it because they should help in some way the people who suffered such great losses of property in the recent floods of the eastern section of the United States.

The oldest of the group was 10 years old while the youngest was six.

The children turned in their donation to Mrs. Elizabeth Weston of the Hancock County Red Cross Chapter.

The children performed this mission of mercy in great humility. It would never have been known by the public if a resident of Clermont, who knew of their actions, called it to the attention of the Sea Coast Echo. They should be commended on their deed.

SAFE CORN STORAGE. Protect your ear corn from weevils. To do this, you do not have to have an elaborate storage bin. There is an easy and economical way to protect your corn. Here is how: First prepare the crib by covering large cracks in floors and walls with plants or corrugated paper. Weevil-proofing materials are 20 percent lindane emulsion cotton seed hulls and water.

Mix one pint of the 20 percent lindane emulsion with one pint of water and two gallons of cotton seed hulls. This will treat 200 bushels of ear corn. After mixing the lindane emulsion with water, add slowly the cotton seed hulls as the mixture is stirred with a spoon or wooden paddle. Important: The treated hulls should be applied to the ear corn in layers. Spread a thin layer of hulls on the floor (1 quart of hulls will cover 100 square feet.) Fill the crib 12 inches deep with ear corn, then add another layer of hulls; an alternate layers until the crib is filled.

This treatment is not recommended for corn to be sold on basis of U. S. Grades, or placed in the Loan Program.

Corn treated in this manner is safe to use as a feed and for meal corn. It is effective for 12-14 months protection.

Caution: Remove the treated corn from crib by hand, allowing treated hulls to sift to the floor. Don't feed treated hulls to livestock.

COTTON HARVESTING

Now that you have made your cotton crop, take care of it. Don't lose money from poor harvesting and ginning.

If necessary, defoliate your cotton when the top bolls are 25 to 30 days old. Pick the seed cotton dry and keep it dry. Too much moisture and field exposure lower grade of cotton.

Do not gin wet or damp cotton, you can lose $15 to $20 a bale by ginning it too wet.

Gin on a one-variety gin. Market for grade, staple and variety value.

Keep all foreign materials out of cotton trailers and wagons. Do not tramp trashy seed cotton.

POULTRY

As the nights are beginning to get cooler, you poultryman are going to have to think about closing up the laying and broiler houses.

Now is the time to get the houses ready for winter. This means deep litter on the floors and the houses closed up on three sides.

However, right now, while the days are hot and the nights cool, you will have to spend a little more time managing your houses. They should be closed at night, then after the days warm up, opened.

Remember that no matter what the weather is, the birds always need plenty of fresh drinking water and plenty of high quality feed.

Avoid drafts this time of year. It is likely to give your birds a cold.

Birds with colds lay fewer eggs and do not grow as fast as do healthy chickens.
